Smith were added to the Decoration Committee for the Valentine Dance.

Drowned at Papaikou.

A second fatality to a member of the Maui crew occurred at Papaikou last Wednesday. A week ago a Japanese was drowned. Wednesday it was Kawaiui, a Hawaiian from Pepeekeo. With others he was in a boat at work, the cove being smooth. A blind swell came in suddenly capsizing the boat. All but Kawaiui swam to the Maui. He struck out for the shore but was killed on the rocks.

The Wilder S. S. Company provided for the funeral which was held at Pepeekeo yesterday. The company paid the undertaker and secured vehicles for the family of the unfortunate young man.

Honokaa Murder.

A Japanese murdered his wife last Monday at the home of Mrs. Rickard, near Honokaa, in presence of Mrs. Rickard and her daughter. Both Japanese had been servants in the Rickard home. Mrs. Rickard was paying the woman when in jumped her husband and stabbed her fatally. Miss Rickard rushed between the enraged Japanese and his wife and the descending knife pierced her right arm. The murderer ran from the house and escaped.

Sheriff Andrews was notified and he at once took up the matter but has found no trace of the fugitive.

Judge Dole Remains Over.

Judge Dole said to a TRIBUNE reporter that his trip to Hilo this time was the coldest he had ever made. He was pleased to see the great white satiny cloak of snow which covers miles of the slopes of Mauna Kea and likes the invigorating crispness of 60 degrees above. Judge Dole will not return to Honolulu by the Kinau today, but will remain in the city a week to visit friends. While in the city he will stop at the Severance home.

Moving Day in Puaeo.

JUDGE DOLE'S COURT.

First Charge to Federal Grand Jury Made Here.

Judge Dole opened Federal Court yesterday morning in the usual form. The roll call of trial jurors showed a large number absent and a special venire was issued, returnable at 2 o'clock. The Grand Jury was called, and the following gentlemen took their places in the jury box:

W. A. Hadden, N. F. Burgess, Chas. Girdler, W. B. Hopkins, I. S. Lae, H. L. Shaw, B. L. Jones, J. P. Fernandez, S. Decker, C. H. Seimsen, Wm. Vannatta, B. F. Schoon, H. E. Kelsey, W. A. Todd, Geo. N. Day, A. H. Jackson, P. J. Heldt, C. P. Benton, D. Lycurgus, Enoch Brown, bailiff.

Judge Dole read his charge, which was the ordinary formal words of instruction, to which was added special instruction concerning penalties and statutes against illicit liquor distilling and traffic. The opening sentences of the charge were:

"Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: 'You have been called here as members of the Grand Jury of the United States District Court of the Territory of Hawaii during the term of court just opening. The duties which will devolve upon you are of grave importance. By the Constitution of the United States it is prescribed that 'no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless upon a presentment of indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger.'"

Judge Dole appointed George N. Day foreman and made Enoch Brown bailiff of the Grand Jury.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held last Friday in the Haili Church. The election of officers resulted in the choice of Mrs. R. A. Lyman, President, and Mrs. Terry, Secretary and Treasurer. The society is out of debt and has closed a good year's work. The efforts of these women have kept bible teachers among the Hawaiians, and given assistance to the Salvation Army and the Haili Church. The union meetings will be continued through the coming year as a feature of the work.

Revenue Collectors.

Roy Chamberlain, Collector of Internal Revenue, and F. L. Drake, his deputy, have been in Hilo the past week. They are here on business in the Federal Court and took occasion to make an extended tour of this island. Mr. Chamberlain, who has a practical eye, is vastly pleased with the future prospects of the Big Island. He pins big faith to the Kona district and predicts that it will one day be very rich. Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Drake will go through the Hamakua district.

A Card.

P. Peck, Mrs. Peck and their daughters wish to thank the people of Hilo for the prompt assistance rendered them at the burning of their home last Monday. They express deepest appreciation of the spontaneous efforts which saved the bulk of their personal effects from the burning house.

Trusses of To-Day

A truss is an important appliance and it is obvious that constant effort will be made for its improvement.

Every year does bring some improvements, and wearers of trusses should have the benefit of them.

In our stock we endeavor to provide all that is practical as well as new.

Our long experience in fitting trusses enables us to judge the value of new ideas and our stock is therefore an ideal one.

Any claims we make for a truss we will guarantee.

PLANTS TO BE INSPECTED.

Rigid Rules Adopted to Keep Out Injurious Pests.

The Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry of the Territory created by act 44 of the Legislature of 1903, have appointed the deputy collectors of customs in the various sub-ports of the Territory, honorary inspectors to enforce the law in their respective jurisdictions. Deputy Collector J. Castle Ridgway of Hilo has been commissioned to inspect all importations of soil, nursery stock, tree, sugar cane, shrub, plant, flower, vine, cutting, graft, cion, bud, seed, root, fruit pit, fruit, vegetable, leaf, nut, moss and other vegetable growth arriving at this port, for the purpose of determining whether such articles are free from insects, blight, scale and diseases injurious or liable to become injurious to trees, plants or other vegetation of value. The act authorizes the detention, and examination of all suspicious importations of this character by the government entomologist, and if found to be dangerous to plant life within the Territory, to disinfect or destroy the same. The importation of these articles excepting hay, grain, fruit, vegetables and nuts for immediate consumption, is permissible only through the port of Honolulu after government inspection. Vessels arriving in this or other ports of the Territory with ballast consisting of soil, sand, or rocks or stone having soil adhering thereto are prohibited from landing the same but all such ballast must be dumped overboard at sea. The violation of any of the provisions of the act is made a misdemeanor, punished by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment within the discretion of the Court.

A Card.

With reference to the burning of the Peck residence last Monday, I desire to state that the house was wired and the wiring was approved by the agent of the Board of Underwriters and unless tampered with by some irresponsible person, the fire could not possibly have originated from this source.
